CURIOUS FATAL ACCIDENT .- Mr. John West, aged about 65 years, formerly a well-known milkman, living on Peyton street, between King and Prince, while engaged in splitting wood in the yard attached to his residence yesterday afternoon, met with a curious accident from the effects of which be died within a few hours. He had raised the axe for the purpose of striking a block etery. of wood a heavy blow, and while in the act of bringing it down with all the force he could wield the blade caught in a clothes on account of the weather, and have postine stretched above his head, which he had ailed to notice, causing the helve to come in violent contact with one of his knees, the force of which produced paralysis of his entire system. He was taken into the house shortly after the accident and medical aid summoned, and though every expedient was resorted to in order to restore him he died, as stated above, a few hours subse-

Ward, the Irish comedian, who appears on Monday evening in his new Irish play, no cases for trial at the Mayor's office to-"The Red Fox," is well and favorably remembered by many of our people, as during the war he played star engagements here under the management of Messis. The "Mikado" was presented at the

How SOLDIERS MAY VOTE,-General Charles J. Anderson and Colonel Wertenbaker were at the Capitol yesterday to see members with reference to passing a law which will save the necessity of those soldiers who attend the National Drill losing their votes. County and town elections are held on the 26th, at which time many Virginia troops will be at Washington. It is proposed to prepare a strictly guarded bill which will allow such soldiers as are qualitied voters and who have certificates of that fact to go to Alexandria and there vote at polls to be opened for their benefit. The returns of the votes so cast, together with the ballots and poll books, are to be forwarded to the counties or towns of which the soldiers are resident in time to be aggregated with other returns by the board of election commissioners.—Dispatch.

Woods, the examiner appointed by the faculty of the University of Virginia arrived yesterday morning, and commenced. at 9 o'clock, the preliminary examination of one senior candidate from St. John's Academy and ten juniors from that institution and Washington School. Co. bondholders, and not to the purchasers, the present company. By this decision there will be about $40,000, with which to pay another dividend upon the W. and O. bonds.

The Anticipated Strike. CHICAGO, April 29.—The master masons and builders association held a 2 hours session last night in considering the threatened strike of the helpers and hod carriers, which it is feared will be inaugurated May 1, if their demands for an increase of wages from 22 to 25 cents per hour is not acceded to, and the expression was unanimous that the employers could not afford under present contracts to increase wages. They also decided that they would not recognize the hod carat the present or at any other wages. The president of the association says he really expects the strike to take place Monday. At a meeting of the hod carriers' union it was decided to instruct all the members of the union to lay their demands personally bereports at the meeting on Sunday and all of his re-election. those employed by contractors refusing to raise their wages will be ordered out. The for them by non union laborers. This means that the plasterers will refuse to work with men, who in case of a strike would take the place of the union hod carriers. The Louisville Outrage. LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 29 .- Turner and Patterson, the negro assailants of Jenuie Bowman, have been brought back from Frankfort and incarcerated in the jail here.

Last night there was a large crowd on the in the 65th year of his age. He was also a square where the jail is located, and it was feared the men would be taken out and hanged before morning. The police have found it necessary to arrest about one hundred and fifty people, mostly boys. A large number of people were parading about town with small coils of rope banging over their shoulders. The condition of Jennie Bowman, the unfortunate victim, is much worse, and she is now thought to be sinking. There is hardly a hope for her recovery. She is delirious and seems to be struggling with her brutal assailants, begging them not to kill her. Her wild screams can be heard all over the neighborhood. To these facts are doubtless due the demonstration and the murmurings of indignation heard on all sides. Several companies of soldiers have been ordered by the Governor to guard the jail. His physician, Dr. Muncaster, stated this morning that his patient was responding readily to treatment and he hoped to have him up and about in two weeks. Hundreds of telegrams have been pouring in from all parts of the country, inquiring as to his condition.
